RECTOR OF ST. LUKES,

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to The Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

ASHBURNHAM, ONT., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your cough remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your cough remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy. E. A. Langfeldt, M. A., Rector St. Luke's Church. To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

THE EDITOR'S WIFE.

Letter From an Illinois Newspaper Man That is Worth Reading.

The following letter from S. H. Duncan, editor of the Seaton, Ill., Independent, shows that there is at least one editor who wants to help others. He writes as follows:

"To the Editor:—I wish you would print the following and thus help me to do a kindness to your readers. My wife has been a great sufferer with stomach troubles for the past four years and the last two years practically an invalid. Nothing seemed to help her until I procured a box of Mi-o-na, nature's cure for dyspepsia. This gave her so much relief that she continued using the remedy until now she enjoys her meals, is relieved from all pain in her stomach and has increased in flesh. S. H. Duncan, editor of Independent."

Penny has the local agency for Mi-o-na and his faith in its merits equals Editor Duncan's. He, in fact, offers to pay for Mi-o-na in any case where it does not give satisfaction.

"Miss Esmeralda, how long do you think a young man ought to go to see a young woman before he declares his intentions?"

"What a question to ask, Mr. Throggins!"

"Wouldn't you think six months a long enough time?"

"Why, y-yes."

"Well, I think it's nearly six months since I began coming here, Miss Esmeralda, and I—"

"Six months to a day, Mr. Throggins."

Outside the Polar regions there remains unexplored, it is estimated, about one-fifth of the land surface of the globe. Fifteen years ago the unknown portions were about one-eighth of the earth's total.—Louisville Times.

The St. Louis Fair has shown that the inventions and discoveries which are now doing the most to change things are radium, the submarine boat, wireless telegraphy, the aeroplane and automobile.

Miss Mary Bell Kirk, of Martin county, a niece of Circuit Judge Kirk, was found fatally wounded on a railroad track over in West Virginia. In a statement before her death she declared that "Big Mose" Evans, a notorious character of that section, shot her because she would not marry him.

In an affidavit filed before Judge Benton at Winchester Tuesday Mrs. Abella Marcum, in her suit for $100,000 damages against former Senator Alex Hargis, Judge James Hargis, Sheriff Ed Callahan and B. F. French charged that defendants had enticed away three of her main witnesses. She asked for a rule of contempt against the defendants and that a special bailiff be appointed to secure the witnesses. The bailiff was appointed, but the contempt proceedings will not be taken up until after the present trial.

The court of appeals, by a majority opinion, written by Judge Barker and concurred in by Judges Settle, Burnam and O'Rear, for the third time reversed the judgment of the Scott circuit court, granting Caleb Powers a new trial. At his last trial he was given the death penalty for conspiracy in connection with the murder of William Goebel. Judges Paynter, Hobson and Nunn dissented, Judge Paynter writing a dissenting opinion which was concurred in by Judge Nunn. Judge Barker also handed down a separate opinion dealing with the formation of the trial jury, the alleged Federal question involved. In another opinion Judge O'Rear concurs in the separate opinion of Judge Barker.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or Bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c, at Penny's drug store.

"Yep."

"Why in the name of sense don't you dig a well?" asked the traveler.

"Because it is just as far one way as the other, stranger."—Denver Republican.

Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by Penny, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottles free.

I wanted her to toe the mark;
She would not toe it. Why?

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

THE President's message is an exhaustive document and is as full of Roosevelt as an egg is of meat. It is pretty good reading, notwithstanding, and we advise the perusal of it by all who have the time and inclination. Following are the more important suggestions made to Congress:

Economy in the conduct of the government.

General investigation of labor conditions.

Medals of honor for cases of conspicuous heroism.

An employer's liability law.

Extension of bureau of corporations to cover insurance transactions.

Enlargement of powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Block signal systems for all railroads.

Legislation against government employees banding together to secure improperly high salaries.

Severe factory inspection and child labor laws.

Improvement of housing conditions in Washington.

Creation of a forestry service in the agricultural department.

Game preserves for animals tending toward extinction.

Salaries instead of fees in the Consular service.

A national quarantine law.

Retrenchment in public printing.

Encouragement of the merchant marine.

Improvement of the currency system.

Revision of naturalization laws.

Punishment of corruption in Federal elections.

Publication of all contributions received and expended by political committees.

A delegate in Congress from Alaska.

More ships for the navy.

A field assistant for the Indian commission.

Floating mines for coast defense.

Lower tariff rates for the Philippines and legislation for the encouragement of capital there.

A CLARK'S GAP, W. VA., was killed another who refused to pay a just debt that he owed him. The grounds for the acquittal are not stated, but we rather admire the law in that State. A man who can pay a debt and won't do so, ought to be killed and killed quickly, at that.

A FAIRMOUNT, W. VA., sport bought a race horse for $6,000 and swapped it for a yellow dog, when he found the thoroughbred no good. He killed the dog and gave up the racing business. Let his example be emulated by would be turfmen.

THERE have been nominated to date 31 democratic Representatives to the next Legislature, which does not convene until Jan. 1, 1906. Democrats believe in doing things not only in time, but doing them right.

CALEB POWERS has been granted a new trial, but the grounds for it are so poor and silly that they are not worth the space they would take in print.

POLITICAL.

Southern republicans are booming John W. Yerkes for a cabinet position. Congressman Rhea says: "Jones had no grounds for a contest. There was great fraud committed by the republicans and Richardson was honestly elected."

The court of appeals in affirming a judgment of the Franklin circuit court decides that the act appropriating $15,000 annually for the support of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, of Louisville, is constitutional.

The youngest member of the next House of Representatives has been nominated in the person of Paul Gullion, of Carroll county. Gullion defeated Col. Frank P. Sebre, of Carrollton. Gullion was a page in the Legislature a few terms ago.

Hon. James A. Frazier, member of the Legislature from Shelby county and democratic nominee for re-election, suffered a stroke of paralysis. His entire left side is affected and it is with difficulty that he is able to talk. Grave fears are entertained for his recovery.

President Roosevelt sent a long list of nominations to the Senate, including four Cabinet officers: W. H. Moody for Attorney General; Robert Wynne, for Postmaster General; Paul Morton, for Secretary of the Navy and Victor J. Metcalf for Secretary of Labor and Commerce.

Senator Platt, of New York, introduced a bill providing for a reduction of the Congressional representation of several of the Southern States on the ground that many citizens of those States are deprived of their right to vote. The States which would be affected if the bill becomes a law are Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia and would lessen the membership in the House by 19.

Three young people were drowned while skating on a lake near Decatur, Mich.

Eleven, and possibly 15, miners were killed in a mine explosion at Burnett, Wash.

Howard Cale, former law partner of ex-President Benjamin Harrison, died at Indianapolis.

Japanese shells have destroyed all battleships, cruisers and gunboats in Port Arthur harbor.

Unable to give $15,000 bond, Mrs. Chadwick was taken to the Tombs and spent the night alone in a cell.

A State College student who was endeavoring to raise a beard, was visited by masked students and shaved.

Dr. Augustus L. Graebner, who had a national reputation as an authority on church history, died in St. Louis.

Senator Proctor introduced a bill providing for the repeal of the anti-canteen law applying to the army.

The oldest woman who married in Berlin last year was 72; 225 were more than 50 years and one more than 80.

The Russian battleship Pobaida, was badly damaged during the Jap bombardment of Port Arthur and probably will be lost.

Japan has formally accepted the American government's invitation to be present at the next Peace Conference at The Hague.

Mrs. Chadwick was held in $15,000 bond on arraignment in New York. Andrew Carnegie denies that he ever had any transactions with her.

Ben J. Hughes, a wealthy merchant and plaster of Trenton, S. C., and entire family were murdered and the house burned. No cause is given.

Judge Benton refused to continue the Marcum damage suit at Winchester yesterday on account of the illness of Judge James Hargis, one of the defendants. The jury was selected.

The Baptist Aid and Christian Missionary Union and not the W. C. T. U. met with Miss Hattie Harris Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. D. J. Smith is very ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. Milton Garner and Robert Abraham, who have been very ill with the same disease, are much better.

Dr. Doores left for Lexington Tuesday to see Miss Alice Hardin, who is dangerously ill at the Asylum and will probably bring her home with him if she is able to travel.

President Eliot, of Harvard, recently visited a hotel in New York and when he left the dining room the colored man in charge of the hats picked up his tile without hesitation and handed it to him.

"How did you know that was my hat when you have a hundred there?" asked Mr. Eliot.

"I didn't know it, sah," said the Negro.

"Didn't know it was mine? Then why did you give it to me?"

"Because you gave it to me sah," Collier's.

Rev. Sam Jones, in discussing the recent election, pays this worthy tribute to Hon. W. J. Bryan: "If he is wise and judicious, he can and I believe he will, lead a victorious party four years hence. After such a victory as the republicans have had they are going to wind up in four years with a Belshazzar's feast and Bryan will be the Daniel who will read the hand writing on the wall. 'Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting.' When the democrats claimed to come back to safety and sanity, and adopted pretty much all the principles and policies of the republican party platform they pulled off from Bryan and Bryanism, yet Bryan threw himself in the breach and not only spoke with sincerity and honesty, but he spoke to more people, everywhere than when he was running for the presidency himself. There is magic in his name. He has something to say to the common people, and the common people hear him, not only gladly, but by the millions. I am not a free silver man, but I will be a Bryan man in the future."

Owing to the busy season in our Jewelry Store I will have to discontinue my visits to Stanford until Spring.

Headaches, granulated lids, styes, pain in and around the eyes, nervousness, etc., are often the results of eye strains. We straighten crossed eyes without the knife, scissors or pain. We use no medicine in examination or treatment of the eyes, nor do we perform any surgical operation.

Results Count—Dr. Murray fitted glasses for me that have given most perfect satisfaction, more than any I ever had. The glasses fitted for my aunt, Mrs. Dudderar, of McKinney, are also perfectly satisfactory.

Luanna Gentry, Stanford, Ky.

Rev. J. L. Owens writes as follows from McKinney to the Somerset Journal: "I closed a protracted meeting with my church here last Saturday night. We had 15 additions, 11 by baptism. The membership was greatly encouraged and the community deeply impressed by the services. Rev. O. M. Huey, of Stanford, did most of the preaching. He is a fine preacher and one of the best personal workers I ever saw in a meeting."

EVERYBODY IS NOT A TAILOR!

Having been in the Tailoring business all my life I feel confident in saying I represent one of the best tailoring firms in the country. With my experience in taking measures, and directions I give,
your clothes are bound to be satisfactory
as my many patrons in this line will bear me out. My prices are the same as inexperienced men who are in the business.
I also have a nice line of fancy chevrot and other suitings I will cut and make if you desire at a moderate price. Thanking you for past favors, I am, yours,
H. C. RUPLEY, the Tailor.

Valuable Property For Sale.

Ten acres of land, a two-story front 7-room cottage. The house is new. A splendid garden and orchard. There is a large mill on the place; a good crusher and the dam is in good repair and the natural power is great economy in running the mill.
Does a splendid business. Everything is in good repair and has all necessary out-buildings. The owner's only reason for selling is the rush of other business, as he has extensive farming interests to look after.
This property is on the Hanging Fork about 4 miles from Stanford, and can be bought at a bargain. For further particulars, address S. C. Thurmond, Lytle, Ky., or
L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

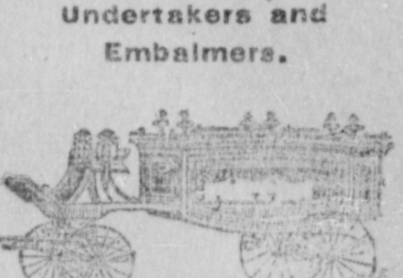

FARM FOR SALE!

I desire to sell my farm of 245 acres on the Danville & Hustonville pike. The farm is in a high state of cultivation, fairly well improved, watered with three never failing springs and five ponds. In fact you have to see the place to understand the many conveniences. I want to sell in next 30 days. I also want to sell my stock consisting of 22
fawns, aged 1 and 2 years old, 2 jacks, 2
jack colts, seven mares and mules, 1 race mare and colt, 1 standard bred mare by Gambetta Wilkes, 2 horse mules, well broke,
that have a little defect, but are good workers; will sell them for $100, if sold at once.
Will sell farm and stock together or separately. Any one wanting a farm and outfit will do well to call at once and secure one of the nicest and best located farms in the county. I also have 50 bushels of good seed rye for sale.

STANFORD, - KENTUCKY

KINGSVILLE.

Bob Roy is at home after several years absence in the South and West.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist church continues to grow in interest.

The election passed off anything but "quietly," though the crowd was quite orderly. Nearly everybody voted, which is shown by the number of democratic votes cast in this precinct. All voted "in the right," of course, and satisfaction seems to reign and there is no bitter feeling. Those who had their favorites who were not victorious in the race will cheerfully, or at least unhealingly, support the nominees. They couldn't have nominated a bad man—one unqualified, for he wasn't on the ticket. We met too many candidates during the past few months to believe otherwise, and while we extend hearty congratulations to Judge R. C. Warren, Hon. W. S. Burch, et al, we present our best wishes to those who lost.
Mr. W. R. Campbell and wife are spending a few days here. Mr. Campbell is hunting. They are stopping at Hotel Pennybacker. Miss Fannie Dunn
is visiting at Williamstown. Mr. Harvey Watts is at home from Harriman, Tenn. Miss Emma Routen, of Lexington, will spend the holidays with her homebodies. Chester P. is the name of the beautiful boy lately arrived at Mr.
and Mrs. Sebastian Chevolette's. Mr.
and Mrs. Marion Williams are also rejoicing over the arrival of a son, Sunday morning. He is a fine little fellow and weighs more than the average number of pounds. D. B. Pilot has returned from a visit to his sister at Covington.
Lon Rigney was at home Saturday. Steve Reynolds, also of the C. S., spent Sunday with his homebodies. Ely Houpe, who has been very ill of typhoid fever, is better.

When our first foreign minister arranged to go to London he was requested by the captain of the sailing vessel in New York harbor to go aboard immediately. Hastily buying a sack of flour, three hams and a bag of potatoes, he hurried on board ship to arrange with some sailor to cook his meals, not knowing but that they might sail at any hour. Five weeks passed before the ship left the harbor. After six weeks at sea the traveler at length beheld the outlines of the coast of old England—Success.

Carlisle will be a "dry" town after
Jan. 1.

STANFORD,

Ell Richardson, who died last week

at Martin, Tenn., at the age of 70 years,

boasted that he had never put his lips

to a woman's, though he was a married man.

In explaining how he happened to eschew the joys of kissing he said he was a very bashful boy. At a party before the civil war a game was often played in which the young women had to forfeit a kiss to her captor.

Young Richardson's timidity being known, a plan was formed to get him to kiss a girl. She placed a pin in her mouth, and when Eli's bashful lips were to press hers she was to prick his lips

with the pin. The fateful moment came, Eli demurred, but was prevailed upon to take the kiss from the maiden.

He started to take the kiss, but his eye caught the gleam of the pin and he refused. From that day until his death

he never kissed a woman.

Head About to Burst From Severe Bilious Attack.

"I had a severe bilious attack and felt like my head was about to burst when I got hold of a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I took a dose of them after supper and the next day felt like a new man and have been feeling happy ever since," says Mr. J.

W. Smith, of Julliff, Texas. For biliousness, stomach troubles and constipation,

these tablets have no equal. Price 25 cents. For sale by all druggists.

The killing of a dog at Clinton, Tenn.,

has led to the death of two men. A man named Massengill, thinking the cur was mad, killed it. Deputy Sheriff Mc-

Calley went to arrest Massengill and a quarrel ensued which resulted in a pistol fight and Massengill wounded Mc-

Calley fatally. The officer, after falling, fired four shots at his antagonist.

Both of them died in a few minutes.

When you want a pleasant purgative

try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver

Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no nausea, griping or otherwise disagreeable effect. For sale by all druggists.

An English watchmaker has just finished making a tiny watch in the form of a shirt stud. Its dial is two-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, and it is to be worn with two other studs. By turning the upper stud the watch is wound, while by turning the lower one the hands are adjusted.
